Sanctumonious Deliberations.

Well friends, perhaps you didn't expect to see me again but here I am for "woe or for weal" if you treat me right I'll stay with you. I have concluded that married life is a failure, hence my divorce from the Canadian Philatelic Weekly. He stuck me up on the shelf, which I didn't relish so I jumped the traces. I'm a sort of an ex-grass widow now I suppose. Will you help me make a living? Send your sub or ad and I'll take care to please you.

Yours sincerely,

THE CANADIAN COLLECTOR.

This number is by no means a criterion of what we intend to make the COLLECTOR. Give us a little time and we'll show you the color of a paper "as is a paper."

Berlin has three stamp papers; there's the old Advocate and the Review. Kind of a mutual admiration society. They may think they're about the main squeeze but we shouldn't wonder if they wake up some day and find the COLLECTOR outshining both of them.

If you plant a dime or a dollar in our advertising lots for sale advertised on another page, don't be surprised to see it return to you with a whole family of dollars.

We give 1000 Perfect hinges for the best joke sent in each issue. Send yours in.

Punches of Philatelic Phun.

Garnered by the PHUNITELIST.

What the hinge says to the stamp, "I'm stuck on you."

There was a collector named Vaughn
Who took his stamps out on the laughn.
A wind mighty strong,
Came rustling along,
And now his nice stamps are all gaughn.

Keep your measley eyes off this page unless your going to subscribe.

This paper is the principal squeeze,
In all the great stamp world.
For other rags we'll never sneeze.
We'll not stay in the cold.
Let's have your sub.
'Twill be no rub,
'Twill neither make nor break you.
We're in this game
For dough not fame
And we will ne'er forsake you.

We present herewith an illustration of

Mr. Rudolph C. Bach,

Editor of the

MONTREAL PHILATELIST.

Two U. S. Paragraphs.

BY CRESCENT.

The present stamps in use in Cuba are the current United States surcharged as follows: 1c de peso, 2½c de peso, 3c de peso, 5c de peso and 10c de peso. The 2½c appears both on the 2c U. S. carmine and the 2c U. S. vermillion as does also the 5 on the 5c U. S. light and dark blue. These will continue in use until the new Cuban issue is printed the design of which is as follows:

1c de peso, Statue of Columbus.
2c " Allegorical statue of Cuba.
3c " Merchant Vessel.
5c " Agricultural Scene.

The color of the one, two and five cent will be made to conform with the recommendations of the Postal Union. The 3c has not yet been decided on. May we expect an error(?) in color and another printing? United States stamps are also surcharged in the same way for use in Porto Rico.

While collectors generally are pleased at the course adopted by the U. S. Government in selling the Periodical remainders at $5 per set, yet there seems great dissatisfaction on account of the officials reprinting, at least, all the dollar values to complete these sets. It is to be regretted that such a strong country, financially, as the American Republic, should resort to a mean method like this to cajole a few dollars out of stamp collectors. Such a course is worthy the strongest condemnation of those "Speculative" scribes. However they are in great demand and it is expected that the entire lot of 50,000 sets will be bought up much sooner than anyone expected.

When answering advertisements always mention this paper.

I would like to know

Why so many men collect for their little boys or little girls and seem to take such an intense interest in it themselves.

Why stamp papers do not join hands and sit on the sample copy fiends.

Why the officials of the P. S. of A. do not get some modern life into their old broken down institution.

Where Louis J. Kramer of L. of A. P. fame(?) is.

Who Dottie Lonesome of the "Advocate" staff is.

Who will be the new officers of the D. P. A.

If this paper is not worth 10c a year.
